

My telephone has stopped ringing from unwanted and annoying calls. I'm able to answer without having to first monitor the call before hand or speak with someone I have no desire or need to. Friends and family say the same. All thanks to the New Jersey Do Not Call law. Any weakening of the law does not serve the public and will return the interference to one's privacy.